

FUTURE EVENTS

It's Not Too Late to Register for 6th Annual UT Dallas Project Management Symposium – 16 PDUs at low cost

1 August 2012 – There is still time to register for the 6th Annual UT Dallas Project Management Symposium – Project Management in a Risky World, being held August 16-17, 2012 in Richardson, Texas, USA. The symposium will again feature five keynote presentations, tracks of professional paper presentations by more than 50 speakers, and various learning and networking opportunities. Attendees can gain up to 16 professional development units (PDUs) for project management professional (PMP®) recertification from the Project Management Institute (PMI®).

Keynote speakers will include:

David E. Daniel, president of the University of Texas at Dallas (UT Dallas), will deliver a keynote presentation on the topic of "The Deepwater Horizon Explosion and the Gulf Oil Spill" to launch the symposium on Thursday morning, 16 August 2012.

Robert Rausch, PMO Director for Dell Healthcare, will deliver a keynote presentation on the topic of "Developing Project Manager Capability Metrics" on Thursday, 16 August 2012.

Lewis Gedansky, PhD, Vice President at the Project Management Institute (PMI), will deliver a keynote presentation on "Project Management for Distributed Teams: Building Success Across Borders" on Friday morning, 17 August 2012.

Stacy Goff, Vice President, International Project Management Association (IPMA), will deliver a keynote presentation on "Tomorrow's Five Greatest PM Challenges... That We Must Solve Today" on Friday morning, 17 August 2012.

Mark Penny, Senior Vice President at Manhattan Construction Company, will deliver the closing keynote presentation on the topic of "Risks in High Profile and Technical Construction Projects" on Friday afternoon, 17 August, 2012.

The 2 Day Project Management Symposium will be held in the Naveen Jindal School of Management on the University of Texas at Dallas campus in Richardson, Texas, USA. The symposium will include an Opening Ceremony and plenary session, professional paper presentations by 50 different speakers, three panel discussions, lunches and coffee breaks, a networking reception and a closing plenary session with keynote speaker and door prizes. Participants can receive up to 16 PDUs for attending. Registration cost for PMI members is US$475, for others it is $525 for the two-day event.

If you are a PMI member living in North Texas, don't miss this opportunity to attend a world class symposium at a very reasonable cost. More information including the full program can be found is at pmsymposium.utdallas.edu.

The conference is being sponsored by the Graduate Program in Project Management at the University of Texas at Dallas, in cooperation with the PMI Dallas Chapter and PM World. The 2-day Project Management Symposium will focus on topics relevant to organizations, industries and the economy in North Texas.

The Project Management Program at UT Dallas provides application-oriented education for professionals with significant project, program or general management responsibilities.

Established in the Executive Education Center in UT Dallas' Naveen Jindal School of Management, students have the option of earning a Graduate Certificate in Project Management, a Master of Science degree with an emphasis in project management, or a Master of Business Administration degree with project management emphasis.

The UT Dallas PM program, originally developed in 1997, is accredited by the Project Management Institute (PMI®) and is registered with the PMI Registered Education Provider Program (PMI R.E.P.). The program is taught by world-class faculty with a blend of industrial project management, consulting and teaching experience. UT Dallas' PM Program in delivered both on campus and online, and attracts students from across the USA and worldwide. For more information, visit project.utdallas.edu.

The PMI Dallas Chapter is a volunteer-based professional association dedicated to supporting the growth and development of project management practitioners, as well as building awareness of the project management discipline and its critical role in business and organization success. With more than 350,000 members in over 180 countries, the Project Management Institute (PMI®) is the world's leading membership association for project management. Founded in 1984 and with over 4,000 members, the PMI Dallas Chapter is one of the world's largest PMI components. To learn more about the PMI Dallas Chapter and its service offerings, visit www.pmidallas.org

PM World Inc is an online publishing and information services organization focused on program and project management, with advisors, correspondents, readers and stakeholders worldwide. Managed by a virtual team of editors and directors located in Australia, the UK and the United States, PM World publishes the online PM World Journal (PMWJ) and will launch a new PM World Library in coming months. To see the latest edition of the PMWJ, visit www.pmworldjournal.net.

