9 November 2014 – Dallas, London, Sydney – PM World has announced that 29 new articles, papers and other original works about program and project management (P/PM) were added to the PM World Library (PMWL) this week. These contributions by 34 different authors in 17 countries were published in the November 2014 edition of the PM World Journal (PMWJ). The new additions bring the total in the PM World Collection to 1003 original works by 527 different authors from 60+ countries. The collection is growing each month by around 30 new works by many different authors; of the 34 authors in November, 14 were new to the journal and library. Profiles of all authors in the library, along with access to their works, can be found at <http://pmworldlibrary.net/author-showcase/>.

According to PMWL Director David Pells, “We are happy to add works by so many new authors again this month. The collection of original articles and papers in the library continues to grow, with more works on both basic and advanced program and project management.”

“I am especially encouraged to see more works coming from project managers and professionals working in the Middle East,” Pells adds. “There is so much investment there, so many big projects, that there are surely some good lessons learned that can be shared. We expect to see even more original content from more countries in coming months.”
