Free Project Management Books Announced for March Drawing

March PM World Library drawing to feature 11 project management books for some lucky winners

19 March 2015 – Dallas, London, Sydney – Eleven project management books are being offered for the March 2015 drawing in the FREE BOOKS program through the PM World Library (PMWL). The monthly drawings for free books at www.pmworldlibrary.net began in February 2014 in connection with the official opening of the new online library. The drawings have proven popular and are continuing through 2015.

Working in partnership with authors and publishers, a number of project management books are offered as prizes for monthly drawings. A random number drawing of fully registered library members is held at the end of each month for the books, to be delivered at no cost to lucky winners. Books for upcoming drawings are posted on the PM World Library home page and in the PM World Journal. For more information about the drawings for FREE BOOKS, click here.
