PM World Press Release

According to David Pells, Managing Director of the PM World Library, “We’re adding more resources to the library on a daily basis. For example, over the last few days we have added direct access to project management and leadership books, management magazines, industry-specific publications and many popular magazines, as well as more book summaries.”

“For the next month, you can sign up at half cost, a great value,” Pells adds. “You can also register for the free trial so you can see the value before spending anything. The value is even greater for groups, such as PMOs, project teams and small companies that want to access many resources while cutting subscription costs. We can provide a nearly complete outsourced corporate library now.”

The PM World Library (PMWL) is a global resource for continuous learning in portfolio, program and project management (P/PM). The PMWL is produced and maintained by PM World which also publishes the monthly PM World Journal (PMWJ), a web-based publication featuring dozens of articles, papers and stories about projects and project management around the world. To see the latest edition of the PMWJ, visit www.pmworldjournal.net; to learn more, visit www.pmworldlibrary.net. Follow the PMWL on Facebook, LinkedIn or @pmworldlibrary.

Note: Students and residents of low-income countries, according to the World Bank ranking, can register for free Scholar membership in the PM World Library. For others, there is a small annual fee.
