

Professor Antonio Calabrese in Italy named International Academic Advisor for PM World

Director of MPM program at Politecnico di Milano joins academic advisory team for PM World Journal and Library

23 August 2015 – Dallas, TX, USA and Milan, Italy – PM World has announced that Prof Antonio Calabrese has joined the organization's academic advisory board for the PM World Journal and PM World Library. Prof Calabrese is director of the masters in project management degree program at Politecnico di Milano in Milan, Italy. He joins an international team of academic leaders who provide advice and feedback to the PM World editorial team.

Antonio Calabrese is Associate Professor of "Industrial Plants" and "Industrial Plants Management" at Politecnico di Milano (Italy). He is Faculty member of the School of Management and Director of two masters degree programmes in project management offered by MIP, the graduate School of Business of the university: the MSPME (Master in Strategic Project Management European, for international students) and the MPM (Master in Project Management, for Italian students).

Director of the MBA and Executive MBA programmes of the School (2013-2015) and of the Corporate Division (customized programmes for companies, 2010-2013), his main research interests are in project management and industrial engineering. Within project management he is mostly interested in project control, risk management, strategic project management, program and portfolio management, stakeholder management and the effects of cultural differences on the project success.

Since 2006 he cooperates with some universities (Shandong University - China, Heriot Watt University - UK, Umea University – Sweden) both in master and PhD programmes. He is member of the Executive Board of IPMA Italy (International Project Management Academy - Italy) since 2008 and is the Editor of the IPMA Italy Journal of Applied Project Management. Reviewer at many congresses and chairman or co-chairman, he is author or co-author of 11 books and more than 70 publications. He consults for large, medium and small private companies in the field of management, project management and industrial engineering.

According to David Pells, managing editor of the PM World Journal, "We are honored to have Professor Calabrese join our academic advisory team. In addition to his many academic achievements, he has been an active leader within IPMA Italy, teacher of various IPMA Advanced Courses, and a contributor at many IPMA world congresses and other events. He is well known and respected throughout Europe."

According to Professor Calabrese, "I am also honored to join PM World's advisory team, especially since I see so many friends and colleagues already participating. I look forward to learning more about PM World's publishing and educational activities and to contributing when I can."
