Professor Ralf Müller named International Academic Advisor for PM World

Well known researcher and professor at BI Norwegian Business School joins academic advisory team for PM World Journal and Library

21 October 2015 – Dallas, TX, USA and Oslo, Norway – PM World has announced that Prof Ralf Müller has joined the organization's academic advisory board for the PM World Journal and PM World Library. Dr Muller is professor of project management at the BI Norwegian Business School in Oslo, Norway. He joins an international team of academic leaders who provide advice and feedback to the PM World editorial team.

Dr Ralf Müller is Professor of Project Management and former Associate Dean at BI Norwegian Business School, as well as adjunct and visiting professor at many institutions worldwide. He lectures and researches in leadership, governance of projects, organizational project management, and research methods. He is author or co-author of more than 160 academic publications.

Among the many awards he has received is the 2015 PMI Research Achievement Award (a life-time achievement award) and the 2012 IPMA Research Award, which he received together with Dr Monique Aubry and Dr Brian Hobbs.

Before joining academia, Dr Müller spent 30 years in industry consulting with large enterprises and governments in more than 50 different countries for their project management and governance. He also held related line management positions, such as Worldwide Director of Project Management at NCR Corporation.

According to David Pells, managing editor of the PM World Journal, "We are honored to have Ralf Müller join our academic advisory team. Ralf has been very active in the project management field for many years and is a well respected researcher, author and teacher. He has solid industry experience and teaches project management at the highly respected BI Norwegian Business School. He will certainly bring more credibility to our journal and library."

According to Professor Müller, "I am happy to serve as an academic advisor for PM World. The journal was helpful when I did my first global online survey some years ago; I would like to return the favor. Maybe we can help the journal and library become more useful to project management students and researchers around the world."
