According to David Pells, Managing Director of the PM World Library, “Once again the winners in the book drawing are located in many different countries. It can be a challenge getting the books to some people, which is why we are including more eBooks now. In any case, it’s great to see winners in Afghanistan, Botswana and Ukraine where more project management knowledge is needed.”

To win, one must be a registered member of the PMWL. To see FREE BOOKS offered for upcoming drawings, CLICK HERE. To learn more about the PMWL, go to www.pmworldlibrary.net. The Free books are provided by authors and publishers; if you are an author or publisher of a project or program management books and would like to offer a free copy of your book through this contest in exchange for significant publicity, contact info@pmworldlibrary.net.

“As always, we want to thank the publishers and authors who contribute the free books,” Pells adds. “Their willingness to ship books around the world to winners is a testament to their commitment to supporting the project management profession everywhere. All of the books this month are worth reading, so even if you did not win one, please go to their web pages and check out these resources.”
