

For Immediate Release

Arif ud Din in Pakistan completes Project Management Research Internship

Graduate of COMSATS University project management master's degree program completes research internship for PM World Library

15 June 2016 – Dallas, TX, USA and Mardan, KPK, Pakistan – PM World has announced that Mr Arif ud Din has completed his project management research internship for the PM World Library (PMWL). Arif began his internship in October 2015 and completed the program earlier this month. See his intern profile and research results at <http://pmworldjournal.net/arif-ud-din/>

Arif ud Din has completed his MS in Project Management and also a research thesis under title of “Evaluation of Project Manager Competencies and its impact on NGOs Project Success” at the COMSATS University, Islamabad, Pakistan. Arif holds a MBA degree specialized in Management. During 9 years of professional experience he has held titles such as Project Officer, Deputy Team Lead, Project Coordinator and Program Coordinator.

The PMWL project management research program was launched in late 2015 to offer project management students the opportunity to conduct research and identify new resources for the library in exchange for recognition, visibility, five years of free access to the library, and introductions to others around the world. To learn more about this program and the dynamic students who are participating, go to <http://pmworldjournal.net/university-interns/>

According to David Pells, PMWL managing director, “Arif has contributed some excellent resources that will be of interest to many in developing economies. For example, case studies and resources related to project management competency in NGOs and community based organizations. He has also educated us all on project management education in Pakistan, providing links to five major universities there offering MS degrees in PM.”

Arif stated, “Participation in the PM World Library intern program was a good experience, and five years of access will be highly useful. In the future I will plan to stay in touch with the library and journal, and hope to publish more articles or papers there.”

Pells added, “We are gaining more readers and library members in Pakistan, partially due to Mr. ud Din’s efforts and the local resources that he has provided access to. We thank him for his excellent work and support.”

In addition to visibility and credit for their contributions, interns receive a Certificate of Completion and Letter of Recommendation on successful completion. To learn more, go to <http://pmworldlibrary.net/students/> and scroll down to internships. Interested students, professors or university representatives can contact director@pmworldlibrary.net.

In addition to the research internships, all students can receive two years of free PMWL membership. Go to <http://pmworldlibrary.net/who-gets-free-basic-access/> or contact info@pmworldlibrary.net

The PM World Library (PMWL) is a global resource for continuous learning in programme and project management (P/PM). The PMWL is produced and maintained by PM World, which also publishes the monthly PM World Journal (PMWJ), a global resource for sharing P/PM knowledge. To see the latest edition of the PMWJ, go to www.pmworldjournal.net. To learn more, visit www.pmworldlibrary.net. Follow the PMWL on Facebook, LinkedIn or @pmworldlibrary.