

40 new works by 48 authors added to PM World Library

PM World Collection grows to 2024 project management articles, papers & other works by 890 different authors in more than 60 countries

15 February 2017– Dallas, London, Sydney – PM World has announced that 40 new articles, papers and other original works about program and project management (P/PM) have been added to the PM World Library (PMWL) this month. These contributions by 48 different authors in 20 different countries were published in the February 2017 edition of the PM World Journal (PMWJ). They can now be found among the most recent papers, articles and book reviews on the PMWL home page at www.pmworldlibrary.net.

The new additions bring the total in the PM World Collection to over 2020 original works by 890 different authors in 65+ countries. The collection is growing each month by approximately 30 new works from many different authors; of the 48 authors this month, 19 were new to the journal and library. Profiles of all authors in the library, along with access to their works, can be found at <http://pmworldlibrary.net/author-showcase/>.

According to PMWL Director David Pells, “This was one of our most productive months, with 17 featured papers and many articles contributed by authors in 20 different countries. While some of the research papers deal with issues in particular countries, all of the works are worth reading. We can learn a lot from others’ experiences; that’s the value of sharing information and knowledge through publications like the PMWJ.”

New authors in February include Emmanuel T. Adu (Nigeria); Manjit Aery (USA); Dr Donald Cog Senanu Agumenu (Ghana); Tukur Al-Mustapha (Nigeria); Denis Bushuyev, PhD (Ukraine); Leonardo Grandinetti Chaves (Brazil), Lyubaba Chernova (Ukraine); Samuel Ekung (Nigeria); Andrew Hudson (UK); Ahmed Saad M. Kafafi (Saudi Arabia); Rejoice Mandizvidza (Zimbabwe); Phillip Martin (Ireland); John McGrath (Ireland); Tafadzwa Mudzvokorwa (Zambia); Ogaga Linus Okorie (Nigeria); Jeff Moses Ogbu (Nigeria); Kenneth Perry (USA); Sam Varghese (USA); and Ruslan Yaroshenko, PhD (Ukraine). New works from 29 authors already included in the library were also added.

“I’m afraid I may have gone overboard with my editorial this month,” Pells adds. “I just could not help but comment on the seemingly unethical attitudes and behavior in the new US administration. While none of us may be perfect, I believe honesty underlies all good leadership and is absolutely necessary for anyone working on a project to be successful. Our teammates, customers, sponsors and all stakeholders depend on it. Why should we require anything less of our political leaders?”

In addition to the original papers, more news articles were added to the library archives this month, bringing the total to well over 2,100 articles.
