PM World Journal named Media Partner for MENA region's Largest Project Management Conference - GPMF 2025, in Saudi Arabia

Fourth annual event in Riyadh expected to attract more than 13,000 participants from around the world

24 February 2025 – Dallas, TX, USA and Riyadh, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia – PM World has announced that the PM World Journal (PMWJ) has been named a Media Partner for the Global Project Management Forum 2025 conference and exhibition being held in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia in May. GPMF 2025, the largest project management event in the MENA region, will be held at the Fairmont Riyadh during 17-19 May 2025.

The GPMF is a premier event that unites industry leaders, innovators, and aspiring professionals to shape the future of project management. Held annually in Riyadh, this three-day event offers worldclass learning, certifications, and networking opportunities. The conference will include a learning forum, exhibition, masterclasses and workshops, excellence awards, book signings and interactive corners, and a B2B program.

While Day 1 will offer project management practitioners hands-on training through masterclasses and workshops, Day 2 and Day 3 (18-19 May) will be a free to attend forum and exhibition, which you can register for here: <https://registration.gpmf.world/>

The forum will bring together industry leaders to explore the synergy of people, processes, safety, sustainability, and innovation. By addressing emerging trends, challenges, and solutions, the forum will redefine project management, driving productivity and cutting-edge technologies. It will champion sustainable development across global projects shaping the future of one of the world's most dynamic industries. GPMF will empower attendees with expert insights, cutting edge strategies, and connections to drive innovation and lead impactful projects. Learn more at <https://gpmf.world/>

According to David Pells, PMWJ managing editor, "We are happy to support the GPMF 2025 conference as a media partner; I was honored to receive their invitation. I think many of our readers will be interested in learning more about this major conference in the Middle East, a region that has emerged as a central location for global PM events. It should be an exciting time for everyone who attends, even virtually.”
