Spain is represented at the PMI NA Congress in Orlando (Florida)

One more year, Spain is represented at the PMI Global Congress in North America, this time celebrated in Orlando (Florida). The attendees could enjoy this year the Disney Magic Kingdom on top of sharing, learning and networking as usually happens at every PMI Global Congress. In the picture below you can see PMI Fellows Yanping Cheng, Davidson Frame and Alfonso Bucero, with Randall L. Englund (PM Executive Consultant, speaker and author) and their respective wives.

Randall L. Englund and Alfonso Bucero presented their new book “Project Sponsorship” – Second edition - this time published by PMI (Project Management Institute) on September 19th. The “Project Sponsorship” subject is being a very demanded subject during this year by many organizations. The “project sponsorship” relevance has been reported by PMI in several publications during this year (one of them was: “The Pulse of the Profession”).

This year during the Award gala was served a very nice dinner to all the attendees.

As usual, it was a great honor to share and chat with many colleagues and Friends from the big PMI family.

PMI LIM meeting in Madrid on November 13th,14th and 15th, 2015

Spain has been very lucky being the PMI LIM Regional Meeting Host this year and then also the Host for the PMI EMEA Congress 2016. On November 13th, 14th, 15th 2015, we will celebrate the PMI LIM Regional meeting at Meliá Castilla Hotel (Europe, Middle East and Africa). In that meeting more than 200 professionals, who believe and implement project management worldwide will join that meeting. During those days, such professionals will discuss and share best practices that contribute to the profession development, not only for the benefit of the organizations but also for social good.

Madrid, Puerta de Alcalá

Next year, 2016 on May, Barcelona city will join around 1000 project Management professionals who will attend the PMI EMEA Global Congress. Mandatory event for all project management practitioners and executives.

Barcelona, Gaudi typical view

Barcelona, with its history and monuments, is an attractive encounter point for all project management professionals. PMI Barcelona Chapter, led by Elisabet Duocastella will be the Congress Host that everybody hopes to be very successful. Such event is necessary for Spain to demonstrate once again the need for the profession in Spain and the best project management practices in all industries.

This has been a good year for the profession and TODAY IS A GOOD DAY to recognize it.
