APM announces 2016 Award Winners

8 November 2016 – London, UK – The Association for Project Management (APM) has announced 2016 award winners who were recognized at the 2016 APM Awards Ceremony and banquet at the London Hilton on Park Lane on Monday, 7 November. The APM Project Management Awards recognise what people can achieve through project management and have been celebrating excellence in the profession for over 20 years.

The Awards dinner is known for being the most glamorous APM event of the year and has become the most prestigious night in the professional calendar. Recognising the very best in the profession, winners of the industry's highly-coveted trophy have demonstrated the invaluable contribution project management and project professionals make in all sectors of society. The finalists and winners attract national publicity and a deserved career boost as a result, both at business and at individual levels.
