2 June, 2016– Rome, Italy – Access to a new resource has been added to the PM World Library (PMWL) related to the project management profession. The new resource is titled “Istituto Italiano di Project Management (ISIPM Italy)”

The Italian Institute of Project Management (ISIPM) is a non-profit association founded in October 2005 in Rome to create a new entity in the Project Management area with specific reference to ICT (Information and Communication Technology), project management within Public Administration and the new so called “Agile” approaches. The board of directors of the institute includes professionals from different fields: consulting, Italian and international private companies, army and others. ISIPM promotes the growth of project management culture among stakeholders, in their different roles, customers, suppliers, sponsors, consultants and participants in projects.

To access this new resource, go to the P/PM Profession section of the PMWL at <http://pmworldlibrary.net/ppm-profession/>, click on P/PM Professional Organizations by Geography, then click on Europe (Continental). Scroll down to Italy to find resource. Free access, but must be registered and logged in.
