

AIG General Litigation Management Guidelines

Access to new resource related to Legal Project Management added to PMWL

Resource provided by Stefano Castagna

30 September 2017 – New York, USA – Access to a new resource has been added to the PM World Library related to project management in the legal field. The new resource is titled “AIG General Litigation Management Guidelines”; and was published AIG (American International Group).

The resource consists of a public guide for “all counsel retained by AIG Property Casualty Claims or by any AIG Property Casualty-approved Third Party Administrator”, effective from April 2013, and is used by the company to create effective budgets, manage the relationship with AIG and communicate on the status of proceedings, both of ADR type and litigation ones. The document provides as example for businesses and lawyers that need to manage their relationship with their counsel and clients respectively.

To access this new resource, go to the Industries and Organizations section of the library at <http://pmworldlibrary.net/industries-and-organizations/>, click on “Legal Field”, scroll down to resource. Must be a registered and logged-in as Free Trial, Professional or Scholar level member to access.

For post in PMWL:

AIG General Litigation Management Guidelines \(2012\) – A guide by AIG for counsels interacting with the business for litigation purposes. Document includes guidance for creating effective budgets, managing the relationship with AIG and communicating on the status of proceedings. The document provides as example for businesses and lawyers that need to manage their relationship with their counsel and clients respectively. For more, go to <http://www.aig.com/content/dam/aig/america-canada/us/documents/brochure/2013-litigation-management-guidelines-as-of-083113-brochure.pdf> (Castagna)

URL for page in the PMWL for post: <http://pmworldlibrary.net/pm-for-lawyers/>