

The International Chamber of Commerce and Court of Arbitration

Access to new resources related to legal project management in international arena added to PMWL

Resource provided by Stefano Castagna

7 November 2017 – New York, USA – Access to a new resource has been added to the PM World Library related to project management in the legal field. The new resource is the International Chamber of Commerce, which also includes the International Court of Arbitration.

The International Chamber of Commerce is an institution devoted to the development and promotion of international trade. The Chamber also provides voluntary rules and codes that can be used by private entities in contracts and generally when managing their business.

The International Court of Arbitration is a leading institution in the field of international arbitration, and is an entity of the International Chamber of Commerce headquartered in Paris, France. The International Court of Arbitration provides services in terms of appointing arbitrators, oversees proceedings and ensured the quality of the arbitration administered. The Court is committed in ensuring efficiency and speediness of the arbitral proceedings it administers.
