

For Immediate Release

Massimo Pirozzi named International Correspondent in Italy

Seasoned project executive and ISIPM official to represent PM World in Rome and throughout the region

22 January 2018 – Dallas, TX, USA and Rome, Italy – PM World has announced the appointment of Massimo Pirozzi as an International Correspondent for the PM World Journal (PMWJ) and PM World Library (PMWL) in Italy. Based in Rome, Mr. Pirozzi is Secretary of the Executive Board, Member of the Scientific Committee, and accredited Master Teacher of the Istituto Italiano di Project Management (Italian Institute of Project Management, ISIPM). ISIPM is the largest project management society in Italy and one of the largest in Europe.

Massimo Pirozzi, MSc cum laude, Electronic Engineering, University of Rome “La Sapienza”, is a principal consultant, project manager, and educator. He is certified as a Professional Project Manager, as an Information Security Management Systems Lead Auditor, and as an International Mediator. He is a researcher, lecturer, and author about stakeholder identification and management, relationships management, complex projects management, and Project Management X.0.

Massimo has wide experience in managing large and complex projects in national and international contexts, and in managing relations with public and private organizations, including multinational companies, small and medium-sized enterprises, research institutes, and non-profit organizations. He worked successfully in several sectors, including Defense, Security, Health, Education, Cultural Heritage, Transport, Gaming, and Services to Citizens. He was also, for many years, a Top Manager in ICT Industry, and an Adjunct Professor in Organizational Psychology. He is registered as an Expert of the European Commission, and as an Expert of the Italian Public Administrations.

According to David Pells, PMWJ managing editor, "We are honored to have Massimo Pirozzi join our team of global correspondents in Rome. I am also excited to start following the Italian context about Project Management more closely, as well as to learn more about ISIPM and to start receiving news about their activities, not only in Rome but also across Italy. Massimo is very experienced and well connected, and has chaired various meetings and events himself. I look forward to working with him, and sharing his news from Italy with our readers."

Massimo Pirozzi stated, "I am happy to represent the PM World Journal in Italy. I believe that PM World is a high-quality example of those Project Management values, such as knowledge sharing and networking, which are foundational to promote and develop our discipline in today's world. I have been a regular reader of PMWJ for many years: I love the journal's approach, I appreciate the state-of-the-art range of its publications, I have been honored to have several papers published in the PMWJ in the last year, and I am pleased to contribute further. Definitely, I am pretty sure this will be a very good partnership."

PM World offers opportunities for professional leaders to report news from their cities and countries as international correspondents for the PMWJ. Share information, gain visibility and join their Global Correspondents Network; contact editor@pmworldjournal.net for more information.

The PM World Journal (PMWJ) is a monthly electronic publication featuring dozens of articles, papers and other works about projects and project management around the world. The PMWJ is registered with the US Library of Congress (ISSN 2330-4480) and is indexed by EBSCO, one of the world's largest providers of databases for libraries and schools. The PMWJ is produced by PM World, which also maintains the PM World Library (PMWL), a global resource for continuous learning in portfolio, program and project management. To read the latest edition, go to www.pmworldjournal.net. To learn more, visit www.pmworldlibrary.net.