University of Southampton graduate student completes PMWL Research Internship

Ismail Can Kürtük completes PM World Library research internship program

20 September 2018 – Southampton, UK and Dallas, TX, USA – PM World has announced that Ismail Can Kürtük, a graduate student at the University of Southampton in the United Kingdom has completed a PM World Library project management research internship. Mr Kürtük completed the program on 19th September 2018.

Ismail Kürtük is currently pursuing his MSc degree in Project Management at the Southampton University Business School in Southampton, England for the academic years 2017-2018 with a scholarship from the Turkish Government.

Ismail Kürtük graduated from the political science and public administration department of the University of Kocaeli in Turkey with a Bachelor's degree. After that graduation, he worked in the family textile company in the position of crisis and risk manager for a year (2012-2013) and also in the position of project supervisor the subsequent year (2013-2014).

Ismail's major field of study includes project management, political science and public administration. Research interests include leadership in project management, decision making in project management, management of public projects, cultural differences in project management, ethics and teamwork.

According to PM World Library Director David Pells, "Ismail Kürtük contributed a number of articles and papers on intuition and project management, a very interesting new topic for the library. He researched some other useful topics as well, but the resources he found on intuition and improvisation in managing projects were really interesting."

According to Ismail, "This internship was very useful for me. In addition to researching some new and interesting topics, I learned more about researching project management on the internet. I highly recommend this program to other students."

Pells added, "Ismail was our second intern from the University of Southampton. Like Ömer Dağlı before him, Ismail conducted useful research and contributed interesting resources to the library; we look forward to working with more Southampton students in the future."

PM World offers virtual project management research internships to university students worldwide who are studying at recognized universities. Internships offer students an opportunity to research specific program/project management topics, network with other interns, gain visibility and enhance their CVs.
