

PMI Bangalore Chapter

Access to new resource related to the project management profession added to PMWL

Resource provided by Tirumala Parchuri

20 January 2019 – Mumbai, India – Access to a new resource has been added to the PM World Library (PMWL) about the Project Management Profession. The new resource is titled “PMI Bangalore Chapter”.

The Bangalore Chapter of the Project Management Institute (PMI®) was founded in 1988 as an autonomous, non-profit, membership association dedicated to the science of Project Management. The Chapter encourages and facilitates education, certification and professionalism in Project Management. It also provides a forum for discussion and the examination of problems, solutions, applications and ideas related to the management of projects.

Chapter membership puts you in contact with a local “network of expertise” and ongoing opportunities for face-to-face contact with peers from a wide variety of organizations and industries. PMI's support of members on a local level continues to expand.

To access this new resource, go to the (content section name) section of the library at <http://pmworldlibrary.net/ppm-profession/> click on “P/PM Professional Organizations – by Geography”, then click on “P/PM Professional Organizations – India, Nepal, Pakistan Region”. Scroll down to India.. Must be a registered member and logged-in to access.

This new resource provided through the PMWL university research internship program; to learn more, click here
