

International Academic Advisor

Timur Narbaev, PhD

Business School
Kazakh-British Technical University
Almaty, Kazakhstan

Timur Narbaev (PhD, PMP®, A.M.ASCE) is an Associate Professor with Business School at Kazakh-British Technical University (KBTU), Almaty, Kazakhstan. He is a director of KBTU MS Program in Supply Chain and Project Management.

Timur Narbaev delivers courses in the area of Organizational, Project and Operations Management as well as courses in Statistics and Research Methods. He conducts research in Project Management, Public Private Partnerships, Construction Management, Sustainability, and Decision Science tools applied to various socioeconomic, managerial and engineering systems. He is a finalist for IPMA 2014 Young Researcher Award and a recipient of Thomson Reuters' Web of Science 2016 Science Leader Award. He reviews for some top journals in the field such as International Journal of Project Management, Construction Management and Economics, Journal of Construction Engineering and Management.

His recent leadership activities include program improvement for business education, coordination of KBTU Master program in Supply Chain & Project Management and leading a task force for KBTU towards the ACBSP accreditation. He also provides consultancy services in market forecasting and risk management for oil & gas and construction industries and is the British Council trainer.

Prior to joining KBTU, Timur worked as a research fellow at Politecnico di Torino (Italy), project manager for the EU projects and a construction manager for building industry. He received his BS and MS in Management from Tashkent Institute of Architecture and Construction (Uzbekistan), PhD in Production Systems (Project Management) from Politecnico di Torino (Italy), PhD in Management from Ministry of Education & Science (Kazakhstan). He is a member of Project Management Institute (PMI, USA), American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE, USA), Accreditation Council for Business Schools and Programs (ACBSP, USA).

Professor Narbaev joined the PM World academic advisory team in February 2016.

Timur can be contacted at timur.narbaev@gmail.com with his webpage at <https://www.kbtu.kz/en/fas/bs/professors>

Profile updated March 2019