

Honorary Global Advisor – P/PM Profession

Tom Taylor

Current: vice-President APM, ChPP.

Former: APM President, Chair and London Branch Chair.

Location: London, United Kingdom

Tom Taylor is a global advisor on projects, programmes, enterprises and business. Tom is a principal at dashdot – a consultancy and publishing vehicle – please go to www.dashdot.co.uk

He is a founding partner and retained advisor at Buro Four – an eminent project management outfit based in UK – please go to www.burofour.co.uk.

Tom is known as:

- a popular, confident and energetic speaker and broadcaster;
- a prolific author and publisher on innovative business and original management issues;
- an experienced and enthusiastic lecturer and course leader;
- and an award-winning, highly-experienced manager of projects, advisor and consultant.

He is a guest lecturer at a number of universities, a previous Visiting Professor at Salford University and a past external examiner at UCL.

Tom is a central figure in the Association for Project Management (APM) currently as a vice-President, a former APM chairman, former branch committee member and former London branch chairman. He is a Chartered Project Professional (ChPP), a Registered Project Professional (RPP), an Honorary Fellow, a recipient of the inaugural President's Medal and recipient of the APM's prestigious Sir Monty Finneston Award. Please go to www.apm.org.uk

He is an active supporter of Member Associations (MAs) of the International Project Management Association (IPMA), Young Crews and their events – please see www.ipma.org

Tom attends, speaks at and hosts PM events around the globe. He is an honorary Fellow of project management associations of Finland, Kazakhstan, Nepal, Portugal, Spain and UK plus IPMA.

A current personal profile of Tom is available at www.tomtaylor.info and he can be contacted at tomtaylor@dashdot.co.uk.

Profile updated March 2019