40 new works by 54 authors added to PMWL in September

PM World Collection grows to 3,235 project management articles, papers & other works by 1,452 different authors in more than 65 countries

15 September 2019 – Dallas, London, Sydney – PM World has announced that 40 new articles, papers and other original works about program and project management (P/PM) have been added to the PM World Library (PMWL) this month. These contributions by 54 different authors representing 20 countries were published in the September 2019 edition of the PM World Journal (PMWJ). They can now be found among the most recent papers, articles and book reviews on the PMWL home page at www.pmworldlibrary.net.

The new additions bring the total in the PM World Collection to 3,235 original works by 1,452 different authors in 65+ countries. The collection is growing each month by 35+ new works from many different authors; of the 54 authors this month, 22 were new to the journal and library. Profiles of all authors in the library, along with access to their works, can be found at <http://pmworldlibrary.net/author-showcase/>.

According to PMWL Director David Pells, “We continue to attract serious research papers as well as good papers from graduate students enrolled in the Master of Science in Project and Programme Management and Business Development program at SKEMA Business School in France. Since the student papers were produced for a graduate course on contracts, many of them deal with disputes, negotiation, contract forms and related topics. But I’ve been happily surprised by how many deal with AI, BIM, EVM, corruption and other very interesting topics.”

New authors in September include Prof Nikolao Bakas (Cyprus/Greece), Chaitali Chheda (USA), Prof Agnes Csiszarik-Kocsir (Hungary), Gabriel Heullme (France), Bertile Hu (France), Prof Ioannis Karamitsos (UAE), Prof Richard Kirkham (UK), Ian Laliberte (Canada), Feiran Liu (China/France), Vamsi Maru (India/France), Brooke McMichael (USA/France), Tarun Mohindra (India), Vishnu Nair (UAE/France), Prof Edward Ochieng (UAE), Ngozi Marykate Okoye (Nigeria), Prof Maria Papadaki (UK/UAE), Madhur Srivastava (India), Yasmine Taybi (Morocco/France), Soukaina Touil (Morocco/France), Pauline Vanneste (France), Prof Janos Varga (Hungary) and Ying Xu (China). New works from 32 authors already included in the library were also added.

“Because the authors are such well-known and highly-respected PM experts, the series articles are again outstanding this month,” Pells adds. “With the new advisories, commentaries, second editions and book reviews, it’s another full issue. Please read a few works this month; the authors have put a lot of thought and effort into every one of them.”

The PM World Library (PMWL) is a global resource for continuous learning in portfolio, program and project management (P/PM). The PMWL is produced and maintained by PM World, Inc. that also publishes the monthly PM World Journal (PMWJ), a digital monthly publication featuring dozens of articles, papers and news stories about projects and project management around the world.
