Review

LOVED it! This book is the first I've seen that puts what project managers do into fun, simple terms anyone can understand. The parallels between Mommy's project management job and her role as the child's loving parent are adorable.

Illustrations are imaginative, colorful and beautiful in alignment with the style of the writing. I particularly loved the Scope Creep and Keeping Everyone on Track drawings. There is so much detail, I keep wanting to read it again to find more in the imaginative drawings.

You can tell the author loves what she does in her professional life and as the mother of a happy child. I highly recommend this to any parent who also wears the project manager hat.

It's gentle and loving, quick and easy to read and reinforces so many positive images. A complete delight.

About the author of the Mommy Is a Project Manager.

Mei Lin

Plano, Texas, USA

Mei Lin is a multilingual Six Sigma Lean Black Belt, PMI-certified Project Manager (PMP, ACP, PBA) who helps companies meet their goals. She successfully executes plans by being efficient, resourceful, and results-driven. She has proof, too. For a decade now, she's consistently delivered and implemented global projects for diverse industries. In her current role as a project manager for the City of Plano, Mei helps the City to meet its technology strategic goals. People appreciate her tenaciousness and admire her enthusiasm.

In both Mei's career and personal life, her drive to improve her skills and apply new techniques to what she does shows up. She holds dual bachelor degrees in Law and Social Work from National Taipei University in Taiwan, her home country. She also holds a Master of Business Administration from Texas A&M University-Commerce, a degree she earned after she emigrated to the U.S. in 2008.

Mei has actively served her community in many ways:

- Since 2017, she's been a Vice President of Programs for the PMI Dallas Chapter. She has just been elected incoming chapter president for 2020.
- Since 2014, she's been an active member of Toastmasters International, where she has served in a variety of leadership roles.
- She's an active member of the Richardson Citizens Fire Department Alumni Association. From 2016 to 2017, she served as Vice President; between 2018 and 2019, she was a board member.
- Between 2014 and 2017, she was a Heartsaver and Basic Life Support instructor with the American Heart Association.

When Mei isn't working or volunteering, she is probably running her next marathon or cuddling with her son, Blake.

Mei resides with her family in Plano, Texas USA.
