15 January 2020 – Dallas, London, Sydney – PM World has announced that 21 new articles, papers and other original works about program and project management have been added to the PM World Library (PMWL) this month. These contributions by 24 different authors representing 17 countries were published in the January 2020 edition of the PM World Journal (PMWJ) at <https://pmworldjournal.com/>. They can now be found among the most recent papers, articles and book reviews on the PMWL home page at <https://pmworldlibrary.net/>.

The new additions bring the total in the PM World Collection to 3,385 original works by 1,509 different authors in 65+ countries. The collection is growing each month by 20+ new works from many different authors; of the 24 authors this month, 7 were new to the journal and library. Profiles of all authors in the library, along with access to their works, can be found at <http://pmworldlibrary.net/author-showcase/>.

According to PMWL Director David Pells, “While we published fewer works in January, there were more countries represented than usual. We welcomed several new authors from Zimbabwe in December. This month new authors are in Australia, Canada, Ireland and Indonesia. Very happy to see more international contributions to the journal, which seems to be more global every month.”

New authors this month included Vahid Dokhtzeynal (Australia), Centhya Octavia Iriani (Indonesia), Rami Kaibni (Canada), Nancy Little (USA), Mozhgan Pakdaman (Australia), Stanimir Sotirov (Ireland) and Bill Sundermann (USA). New works from 20 authors already included in the library were also added.

“This month’s edition contains more excellent articles and papers,” Pells adds. “I want to point out the featured papers about local issues in Indonesia, Nigeria and Zimbabwe. We sometimes forget how important projects and PM are in local industries and economies. I hope we continue to attract works that discuss real issues and solutions.”
