BREAKING NEWS

Early Registration Open for 14th UT Dallas Project Management Symposium in May

Discounts available to attend the premier project management conference in north Texas through April 19th

1 March 2020 – Richardson, TX, USA – Early registration is open for the 14th annual University of Texas at Dallas (UT Dallas) Project Management Symposium. The 14th UT Dallas PM Symposium, under the theme “Transforming Project Management for Rapid Results: Agile, Flexible and Strategic”, will be held during 18-19 May 2020 in the Naveen Jindal School of Management on the UT Dallas campus in Richardson, Texas, USA (just north of Dallas). Visit the symposium website here.

The symposium is organized by the Graduate Program in Project Management at UT Dallas, in cooperation with the PMI Dallas Chapter and the PM World Journal. The annual 2-day project management conference focuses each year on topics relevant to industries in North Texas, including energy, healthcare, information technology, telecommunications, local government and others. The 2020 UT PM Symposium is expected to attract 400+ participants. More information on the conference website.

This is now the premier PM conference in the region and one of the best in the central United States. Benefits to attendees and employers include

Benefits for Attendees

- Earn PDUs – Earn up to 13 PDUs to help maintain your PMP© or other PMI certification; presenters can earn even more (see the call for papers).
- Learn – Gain valuable new skills from experienced industry professionals and experts; every presentation includes learning objectives and outcomes.
- Grow – Be challenged to think outside the box, learn about new topics and trends, discuss issues with peers, take your skills to the next level.
- Network – Meet authors, mentors, recruiters, teachers and others who can help advance your career.
- Find Inspiration – Keynote speakers are chosen for their expertise, experience, passion and ability to inspire; learn, get excited, have fun!
Benefits for Employers

- Value – For a small investment, employees can acquire a wealth of information and knowledge that can be applied on the job immediately.
- Employee Development – Arm your project managers with the latest methods for managing projects of various sizes and complexity.
- Skill Enhancement – Employees can share lessons learned & learn new skills; multiple employees can split up, attend different sessions and maximize organizational learning.
- Competitive Advantage – Ensure that your project managers and teams can deliver new products and services to customers and stakeholders as well as or better than your competitors – through excellent project management.
- Community Involvement – Attendance can provide your employees and the company the chance to engage with the university and local PMI chapter.
- Enhanced reputation – Be perceived as an innovative and forward-thinking organization by learning and implementing the latest PM best practices.

Early registration rate of $475 for the two-day event ends on April 19th. Group prices are even lower. If you are a project manager or project management professional living in Texas or nearby states, plan to attend this world class symposium. If you employ project and program management leaders, send them to this world-class event. It’s local and a fraction of the cost of attending or sending staff to distant events. To see this year’s conference agenda and speakers or to register, click here.

As it is each year, the 2020 symposium will be held in world-class facilities in the Naveen Jindal School of Management on The UT Dallas campus in Richardson, Texas, USA. The event will include keynote speakers, professional presentations, interactive sessions, lunches and coffee breaks, and a networking reception. For additional information or with questions contact pmsymposium@utdallas.edu or visit the UTD symposium website here.

The Project Management Program at The UT Dallas provides application-oriented education for professionals with significant project, program or general management responsibilities. Established in the Executive Education Center in UT Dallas’ Naveen Jindal School of Management, students can earn a Graduate Certificate in Project Management, a Master of Science degree with an emphasis in project management, or a Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree with project management emphasis. UT Dallas PM program, originally developed in 1997, is accredited by the Project Management Institute (PMI®) and is registered with the PMI Registered Education Provider Program (PMI R.E.P.). For more information, visit project.utdallas.edu.
The PMI Dallas Chapter is a volunteer-based professional association dedicated to supporting the growth and development of project management practitioners, as well as building awareness of the project management discipline and its critical role in business and organization success. With more than 500,000 members in over 200 countries, the Project Management Institute (PMI®) is the world’s largest membership association for project management. Founded in 1984 and with over 4,000 members, the PMI Dallas Chapter is one of the world’s largest PMI components. To learn more, visit www.pmidallas.org

The PM World Journal (ISSN: 2330-4480) is a digital publication featuring dozens of articles, papers and stories about projects and project management around the world. The journal, published monthly since August 2012, is indexed by EBSCO for libraries and universities. It is produced by PM World which also maintains the PM World Library (PMWL), a global resource for continuous learning in programme and project management. To read the latest edition, go to www.pmworldjournal.com. To learn more, visit www.pmworldlibrary.net.