
PM WORLD BOOK REVIEW

Book Title: Mommy is a Project Manager

Author: Mei Y. Lin

Illustrated by: Yoyo Chang

Publisher: Fnova Publishing, LLC

List Price: $19.99 Format: 22 pages, hardback

Publication Date: 2019 ISBN: 978-1-951486-00-6

Reviewer: Lawrence Reid, PMP

Review Date: 02/2020

Introduction

Mommy is a Project Manager is a creative children's book that tells the story of what project managers are and what they do at work and at home in a detailed yet simplified way for children to understand. One of the unique and interesting details is that the pages are written in English, Spanish, and Chinese.

Overview of Book's Structure

Mommy is a Project Manager is a short easy to read book to be shared with children to explain what mommy does as a project manager.

Highlights

Mommy is a Project Manager references the PMBOK knowledge areas and how they are applied at work and home. The left page describes an aspect of project management at work and the right page describes the same aspect applied at home. The colorful illustrations creatively flow between the pages to help reinforce the transference of project management skills between work and home.

Who Might Benefit from the Book?

Children are the obvious audience of Mommy is a Project Manager. Adults may use the book as a useful tool to explain to children what the parent is doing while at work.

Conclusion

Children will learn more from Mommy is a Project Manager than just project management terms and concepts. Interpersonal and planning skills are important no matter where you are or how young you are. I really like that the pages are written in English, Spanish, and Chinese reinforce that there are several ways to communicate.

To learn more about the book, go to: https://www.amazon.com/Mommy-Project-Manager-Mei-Yin/dp/1951486005/ref=tmm_hrd_swatch_0?encoding=UTF8&qid=&sr=

Editor's note: This book review was the result of a partnership between the publisher, PM World, and the PMI Dallas Chapter. Authors and publishers provide the books to PM World; books are delivered to the PMI Dallas Chapter, where they are offered free to PMI members to review; book reviews are published in the PM World Journal and PM World Library. PMI Dallas Chapter members can keep the books as well as claim PDUs for PMP recertification when their reviews are published. Chapter members are generally mid-career professionals, the audience for most project management books.

If you are an author or publisher of a project management-related book, and would like the book reviewed through this program, please contact editor@peworldjournal.net.

About the Reviewer

Lawrence Reid, PMP

Bedford, Texas

Lawrence Reid, PMP is a Customer Relationship Management (CRM) specialist with extensive experience in project management, needs analysis, implementation, customization, and integration for companies in the aerospace, financial services, manufacturing, and medical industries. Lawrence has a Bachelor's degree in Finance and has obtained the Project Management Professional (PMP) certification. He is a member of the Dallas and the Fort Worth chapters of the Project Management Institute. Lawrence presented at the University of Dallas and Project Management Institute Symposium in 2019 on CRM in the Age of Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning.