Graduate student at SDA Bocconi Asia Center in Mumbai completes PM World Library research internship program

8 March 2020 – Mumbai, India and Dallas, TX, USA – PM World has announced that Tirumala Parchuri, a graduate student at the SDA Bocconi Asia Center in Mumbai, India, has successfully completed a PM World Library project management research internship.

Tirumala is currently pursuing her International Master in Business (IMB) degree at SDA Bocconi Asia Center (Mumbai, India). She holds a Bachelor of Technology in Electronics and Communication Engineering from K L University (Andhra Pradesh, India), where she studied from 2011-2015.

Tirumala has work experience of 26 months as a Senior Software Engineer. During her stint, she was responsible for developing program for clients using Java and PEGA technologies. She also handled support activities for solving incidents coming from the clients' end.

Major Field of Study: Project Management. Research interests: Project Management, Strategy Management, Stakeholders Management, Supply Chain and Logistics Management, Projects execution and control, Scheduling and planning, Agile Project Management, Risk Management

According to PM World Library Director David Pells, "Tirumala Parchuri performed excellent research for us from January through December of 2019. She sent us a lot of research results at the end of the year which took us awhile to post in the library. Those resources were about project management in a variety of industries, which was very interesting."

According to Tirumala, "Thank you so much for the opportunity. I learned a lot about different aspects of project management in different industries. I think it will help me a lot as I launch my search for employment and career opportunities."

Pells added, "Tirumala researched project management in ten different industries, and from several perspectives. Her range of interests helped us populate more sections of the library with useful resources. I hope other interns can continue her work."
