Wideman PM Website updates announced for September 2020

1 September 2020 – Ontario, Canada – Max Wideman has announced updates to his popular project management website, www.maxwideman.com. According to Max, this month we've posted the following:

Papers: Terry Williams and his colleagues provide a thorough study of The Front-End of Projects: A Systematic Literature Review and Structuring of the span of work and effort involved in the "front-end" of the project life span based on a careful study of PM publications published between January 2006 and September 2017.

Papers: Through Todd Williams's many years of corporate management experience, he has uncovered six areas of typical shortcomings or failure in communication. He describes these in Filling Execution Gaps - How Executives and Project Managers turn Corporate Strategy into Successful Projects.

Guests: Applying for a PM position? Or just updating your resume? Make sure there are no negative entries. Donald Fomby points to his recommended Top 8 Things to Leave Off the Resume as a Project Manager.

Musings: Max reports excellent advice from the past-president of the Canadian Society of Civil Engineers in a letter describing Why Energy Is the Key to Personal Time Management.
