32 new works by 36 authors added to PMWL in September

PM World Collection grows to 3,663 project management articles, papers & other works by 1,591 different authors in more than 70 countries

8 September 2020 – Dallas, London, Sydney – PM World has announced that 32 new articles, papers and other original works about program and project management have been added to the PM World Library (PMWL) this month. These contributions by 36 different authors representing 18 different countries were published in the September 2020 edition of the PM World Journal (PMWJ) at <https://peworldjournal.com>. They can now be found among the most recent papers, articles and book reviews on the PMWL home page at <https://peworldlibrary.net/>.

The new additions bring the total in the PM World Collection to 3,663 original works by 1,591 different authors in 70+ countries. The collection is growing each month by 30+ new works from many different authors; of the 36 authors this month, 7 were new to the journal and library. Profiles of all authors in the library, along with access to their works, can be found at <http://peworldlibrary.net/author-showcase/>.

According to PMWJ Editor David Pells, “This edition is well balanced, with eight featured papers, eight series articles, four advisory or commentary articles, three reports and five second editions. With 27 returning authors, it seems that many contributors are comfortable with our process and results. We strive for both quality and usefulness and I can honestly say there are some seriously good works in the journal this month. I hope our readers are also halfway satisfied.”

New authors this month include Massimoluigi Casinelli (Italy), William Davis (USA), Vladislav Dobin (USA), Dr. Bruce Lazar (USA), Steven Kopischke (USA), Jama Adam Salah (Somaliland) and Dr. Deepak Shrikant (USA). New works from 27 authors already included in the library were also added.

“The interview this month is with Alan Stretton, one of our most senior authors and a PMWJ advisor,” Pells adds. “Spring at PM Review in China conducts great interviews with leaders and experts from around the world; we are honored that they are offered to us for republication. Alan often enlightens us with his articles and papers; this month he does so in his interview with Spring. Don’t miss it.”
