LETTER TO THE EDITOR

On the subject of the PM World Journal as resource for sharing “from the trenches”

26 June 2017

Dear David,

You're doing a fantastic job with PMWJ, filling that gap for guys like me... I spent years figuring out how to share publishable material/resources/news/ideas back to the PM community! I could never understand why more professional magazines weren't open to contributions from “the trenches”.

Glad we found you...

Best,
