Wideman PM Website updates announced for November 2020

1 November 2020 – Ontario, Canada – Max Wideman has announced updates to his popular project management website, www.maxwideman.com. According to Max, this month we've posted the following:

Papers: This two-sided book, Project Management for Education & Educators by Walter Ginevri and Bernie Trilling, recognizes that project management is a life skill for the modern generation. It calls on PM's and Educators to promote establishing project skills as a standard part of every kid's basic education. (Book Review)

Guests: In The Relationship between Project Management and Risk Management, Jordan MacAvoy says that meeting company expectations sounds easier than it actually is. Risks complicate the progress of both simple and complicated tasks. He recommends six steps towards smoothly incorporating risk management into daily workflows.

Musings: Molly Crocket writes to remind us How to Write an Effective PM Charter, what it is, what it should include, and three steps and tips for getting it done.

Project management tip of the month

The failure principle:

The key to failure is trying to please everybody at once. Bill Cosby.
