According to PMWJ Editor David Pells, “One of the strengths of the PMWJ is the flow of new articles by our ongoing contributors. This month is no exception with significant series articles by Darren Dalcher, Alan Stretton, John Cable, Massimo Pirozzi, Iain Fraser. These five thought leaders also represent five different and important countries, adding to the global perspective that we are constantly seeking.”

“Two papers by Bob Prieto, another regular author, are included this month, a new one in the featured papers category and an older one among the second editions.” Pells adds. “Bob is a former senior executive of two of the world’s largest engineering/construction companies and a globally-respected expert on mega projects and programs. I also want to mention new contributions from other regular contributors, including Charles Villanyi Bokor in Canada, Alfonso Bucero in Spain, Dr. Lalamani Budeli in South Africa, Dr. David Hillson in UK, Angelica Larios in Mexico, Kik Piney in France, John Schlichter in the USA, Miles Shepherd in UK, Dr. Jouko Vaskimo in Finland, Rebecca Winston in the USA and Yu Yanjuan (Spring) in China.
