Contents include four letters to the editor, editorial, an interview, ten featured papers, four series articles, six reports, two advisories, two commentaries, two book reviews, a personal story and a second edition. This is also one of the most international editions that we have published, with 20 countries represent among the authors. Three of the featured papers had multiple authors, which helps increase the author count.”

New authors this month include Dr. Deane Desper (USA), Dr. Kenneth Klosterman (USA), Dr. Irina Kulikova (Russia) and Adeeb Mohammed (Yemen). New works from 25 authors already included in the library were also added.

“My January editorial on ‘Project Management needs a Higher Purpose’ generated quite a lot of feedback, mostly positive,” Pells adds. “Part 2 is included this month on the topics of mission statements, social responsibility and corruption. I suspect it will produce even more reactions, perhaps more push back than January’s Part 1. In any case, I hope these articles generate stimulate discussion on the issues and maybe even some positive initiatives.”
