AEDIP awarded the PMI Madrid Spain Chapter

AEDIP, Spanish Association of Project Management in the Construction field, awarded the PMI Madrid Spain Chapter on December 15th, 2020, during its event “Project Management Case Studies.” They recognized the PMI Madrid Spain Chapter as an “Honoured Member” on the Institutions category. They recognized the PMI Madrid Chapter’s contribution based on their work and efforts to promote, defend, and disseminate the Project Management Profession.

That award was received by Susana Moreno, Chapter president, on behalf of the association. That award is a prize for the constant and committed efforts from many volunteers and professionals over the years. They have been positioning the association as a referent in Project Management. She thanked AEDIP, not only on behalf of the PMI Chapter BOD and their membership but also from all volunteers and professionals building the association over the years.

AEDIP conglomerates Spanish Construction industry firms, and the PMI Madrid Chapter president especially mentioned the significant number of Madrid Chapter members whose referenced industry is that one. She remarked on the value and importance that it has for these professionals to continue growing in knowledge and skills through our Chapter because they can use those skills on the projects they participate in by generating more value for organizations and the construction industry in general.

All industries face significant challenges, and Project Management is becoming more critical than ever to achieve their success. Awards like this mean a renewed energy injection to move forward with the diffusion and support to all project management professionals.

The PMI Madrid Spanish Chapter will move forward by organizing more activities in 2021, where all of us will face new challenges to continue supporting our profession. The institutional relationship maintenance among other PMI Chapters and other professional associations is crucial for our profession's success.

HAPPY 2021! and our best wishes of success for all the projects you will manage this year.

TOMORROW WILL BE BETTER!
