Reinhard Wagner appointed PM World Honorary Global Advisor

Immediate past IPMA chair joins global advisory team for PM World Journal and Library

22 March 2021 – Munich, Germany and Dallas, TX, USA – PM World has announced the appointment of Reinhard Wagner as an honorary global advisor for the PM World Journal (PMWJ) and PM World Library (PMWL). Reinhard is immediate past Chairman of the Council of the International Project Management Association (IPMA), previously serving as president and vice president for standards and research. Until 2015 he served as the chairman of the board for the German Project Management association (GPM).

Reinhard Wagner has been active for more than 35 years in the field of project-related leadership, in such diverse sectors as Automotive, Engineering, and Consultancy, as well as various not-for-profit organizations. As Managing Director of Tiba Managementberatung GmbH, a leading PM Consultancy in Munich/Germany, he supports executives of industrial clients in transforming their companies towards a project-oriented, adaptive and sustainably successful organization. Reinhard Wagner has published 36 books as well as several hundred articles and blogposts in the field of project, program and project portfolio management.

In more than 20 years of voluntary engagement he has served the German Project Management Association (GPM) as well as the International Project Management Association (IPMA) in a range of leadership roles (including President and Chairman) and was granted for his international commitment with Honorary Fellowship of several IPMA Member Associations. Reinhard is Senior Lecturer at the Alma Mater Europaea and is currently finishing his doctoral thesis on the topic of Project Society.

According to PMWJ editor David Pells, “We are happy to welcome Reinhard Wagner to our global advisory team. As recent president and chairman of IPMA, Reinhard has unquestionably had a positive global impact on the project management professional world in recent years. He brings great experience, knowledge and leadership to our advisory board.”

Reinhard Wagner stated, “It’s my pleasure to become a global advisor for the PM World Journal and Library. I especially look forward to supporting David Pells’ new focus on social responsibility and how project management can help solve global challenges. This is also important in our ‘International Research Programme CaProSoc’ (Capabilities for delivering projects in the context of societal development) at Alma Mater Europaea ECM in Maribor, Slovenia, a programme that I am co-leading with Prof Mladen Vukomanović.”

Pells added, “Reinhard is one of the most recognized and influential leaders in the PM world. We are honored to have his involvement and support, and also look forward to cooperating with their CaProSoc research programme at Alma Mater Europaea.”

PM World engages with professional and academic leaders in various countries to support the organization’s dual missions of advancing knowledge sharing and continuous learning related to modern program and project management.
