Megaproject Leaders

New book explores personal experiences and perspectives of megaproject managers

19 August 2021 – Cheltenham Glos, UK – Edwin Elgar Publishing has announced the publication of Megaproject Leaders: Reflections on Personal Life Stories, in their New Horizons in Organization Studies series. Megaproject Leaders brings together 18 prominent academics who interviewed 16 great megaproject leaders originating from 10 different countries.

Based on a reflective methodological approach, these chapters investigate the managing of megaprojects from a human perspective, identify new trends in the managing of megaprojects and identify lessons learned from the personal views of the interviewees. The novel ideas presented will appeal to academics, practitioners and university students.

The book is edited by Nathalie Drouin, Professor of Project Management, Department of Management (École des Sciences de la gestion), Université du Québec à Montréal (ESG UQAM), Canada, Adjunct Professor, University of Technology Sydney, Australia, Executive Director of KHEOPS, International Research Consortium on the Governance of Large Infrastructure Projects, and Editor-in-Chief of the International Journal of Managing Projects in Business.

Her co-editors are Shankar Sankaran, Professor of Organizational Project Management, School of the Built Environment, Faculty of Design Architecture and Building, and a core researcher of megaproject management, Centre for Informatics Research and Innovation, University of Technology Sydney, Australia; Alfons van Marrewijk, Professor of Construction Cultures, Delft University of Technology, the Netherlands, Adjunct Professor of Project Management, BI Norwegian Business School, Oslo, Norway; and Ralf Müller, Professor of Project Management, Department of Leadership and Organizational Behaviour, BI Norwegian Business School, Oslo, Norway and Editor-in-Chief of the Project Management Journal
