Nathalie Drouin appointed Honorary Academic Advisor

Professor at Université du Québec à Montréal joins global advisory team for PM World Journal and Library

22 August 2021 – Montréal, Canada and Dallas, TX, USA – PM World has announced the appointment of Nathalie Drouin, PhD, MBA, LL.B. as an honorary academic advisor for the PM World Journal (PMWJ) and PM World Library (PMWL). Dr. Drouin is the Executive Director at KHEOPS, an International Research Consortium on the Governance of Large Infrastructure Projects, the Editor-in-Chief of the International Journal of Managing Projects in Business, and a full professor in the Department of Management, École des Sciences de la gestion, Université du Québec à Montréal (ESG UQAM).

Nathalie is also an Adjunct Professor at the University of Technology Sydney (UTS), Australia and Associate Researcher at École nationale d'administration publique (ENAP), Canada. She teaches initiation and strategic management of projects in the Graduate Project Management Programs at ESG UQAM.

Dr. Drouin is a former member of the PMI Insight Academic Group. She is also a member of the Board of Directors of the Logistics and Transportation Metropolitan Cluster of Montreal (CARGO M) and a member of Parks Canada Agency Audit Committee, Government of Canada.

Her research has been funded by various research councils. The results of her work have been published in major academic journals and presented at several international conferences. She is currently focused on organizational project management, leadership issues and megaprojects. With Ralf Müller and Shankar Sankaran, she won the 2019 Walt Lipke Project Governance and Control Excellence Award as well as the 2019 International Project Management Association's IPMA Research Award.

According to PMWJ editor David Pells, "We are honored to welcome Dr. Nathalie Drouin to our honorary advisory team. As editor-in-chief of the International Journal of Managing Projects in Business, she may be one of the most influential individuals in the PM field. Her subjects of research are some of the most important and her teaching credentials are outstanding. Her influence on our readers should be felt immediately."

Dr. Drouin stated, "I am happy to join the PMWJ's academic advisory team. I've only just learned about this journal but now see the value of a practitioner-oriented publication where people with all kinds of PM experiences can share knowledge. When I saw some of my international colleagues already participating, I thought it might be both worthwhile and fun to contribute."

PM World engages with professional and academic leaders in various countries to support the organization's dual missions of advancing knowledge sharing and continuous learning related to modern program and project management.
