According to PMWJ Managing Editor David Pells, “This was another good edition with three excellent interviews, three important papers, two student papers, interesting articles and really great reports. We’re also publishing more news articles again, so I hope readers will scroll down and take notice.”

New authors this month include Pascal Movogo Awana (France), E. Yassine (France), Carla Teixeira Fernandes (France), Mahendra Gupta (Australia), Ali Hajji (Tunisia), Oussama Laabidi (France), Mohamed Marzougui (France/Morocco), Barthélémy Menard (France), Floachadé Rami (France), Suan Templier (France) and Mathias Sully (France). New works from 20 authors already included in the library were also added.

“I was very happy to publish student papers again this month,” Pells adds, “thanks to Prof Mohamad-Fadl Haraké, who is also research scholar for the PM World Library. Each of the two papers was co-authored by five graduate students at l’École supérieure de logistique industrielle – ESLI, Paris campus, for the course Supply Chain Tools and Project Management in the Master’s degree in Secured & Intelligent Logistics, Defense and Private-Public ecosystems option, for which Mohammad is the supervising professor. The papers have a supply chain context, which is also an interesting topic these days.”
