Prof Vito Introna appointed PMWJ Honorary Academic Advisor

Professor of innovation and project management at University of Rome 'Tor Vergata' joins global advisory team for PM World Journal and Library

4 January 2022 – Dallas, TX, USA and Rome, Italy – PM World has announced the appointment of Professor Vito Introna as an honorary academic advisor for the PM World Journal (PMWJ) and PM World Library (PMWL). Dr. Introna is Associate Professor at the Department of Enterprise Engineering at the University of Rome “Tor Vergata” where he teaches “Industrial Plants” and “Innovation and Project Management”.

Vito Introna obtained a Ph.D. at the University of Naples “Federico II”, Italy. He teaches Project Management in the Executive Master in Business Administration at University of Rome “Tor Vergata”, in the Master in Project Management at Luiss Business School and in many other Master Courses. Within project management he is mostly interested in project planning and control, risk management, program and portfolio management, innovation project management, stakeholder management and the effects of human behaviour on project success.

He was a founding member of Istituto Italiano di Project Management (ISIPM – Italian Institute of Project Management) and since 2005 he is a Member of the Steering Committee of ISIPM. He is a member of the Scientific Committee of the journal "Il Project Management" and since January 2017 he is a member of the scientific technical committee for the project manager certification scheme for the accredited certification body AICQ-SICEV in Italy. Vito is co-author of 11 books and more than 80 publications.

According to PMWJ editor David Pells, “We are honored to welcome Professor Introna to our global advisory team. He is not only a researcher and teacher of project management, he is a major influencer in the Italian PM professional community. As an ISIPM founder and steering committee member, and as scientific advisor to the Il Project Manager journal, he is directly involved with creating and directing information and resources to advance the practice of PM throughout Italy.”

Prof Introna stated, “I am honored to join PM World’s academic advisors team. Over the last few years, readership of the PM World Journal seems to have dramatically increased in Italy. With their recently announced partnership with ISIPM, it becomes much more interesting for me to get involved. This is a unique opportunity and I look forward to contributing.”

PM World engages with professional and academic leaders in various countries to support the organization’s dual missions of advancing knowledge sharing and continuous learning related to modern program and project management.
