

BREAKING NEWS

Full program announced for May 17-18 UT Dallas PM Symposium

Major north Texas project management conference returns to in-person event with great speakers and very full schedule

2 May 2022 – Richardson, TX, USA – The full program and schedule for the 14th annual University of Texas at Dallas (UT Dallas) Project Management Symposium have been announced and are available to view online. The 14th UT Dallas PM Symposium, under the theme “Project Management Transformed for Rapid Results: Agile, Flexible and Strategic”, will be held during 17-18 May 2022 in the Naveen Jindal School of Management on the UT Dallas campus in Richardson, Texas, USA (just north of Dallas). Visit the symposium website here.

The symposium is organized by the Graduate Program in Project Management at UT Dallas, in cooperation with the PMI Dallas Chapter and the PM World Journal. The 2-day 14th UT Dallas PM Symposium, delayed since 2019 due to the Covid-19 pandemic, will be one of the first live PM conferences in the United States this year. Join other PM professionals in this return to live learning, sharing and networking. More information on the conference website here.

Over Two-Days: Breakfast, keynotes, track presentations, panel discussions, coffee breaks, lunches, networking reception and more. 7:30-5:00 p.m. daily, hosted reception at end of day one.

Keynote Speakers

Scott Ambler, Vice President, Chief Scientist, Disciplined Agile, PMI – Tuesday, May 17 at 8 a.m. - Topic: From Project Management Office to Value Delivery Office: How PMOs Need to Evolve.

Anthony Reed, Author, international business executive and history-making, hall of fame marathon runner and distance running coach – Wednesday, May 18 at 8 a.m. – Topic: Transforming from a Project Manager to a Mental Marathoner: The New Type T Manager.

J Kent Harmon, Vice President with Targeted Convergence Corporation – Wednesday, May 18 at 9:30 a.m. – Topic: It's the Decisions! How to increase project success with Set-Based Project Planning.

Read keynote abstracts and bios here.

Over 45 Track Presentations – Spread over five parallel tracks each day, presentations will cover various aspects of agile project and product management, organizational changes, applications and issues. Gain insights and lessons learned from those who have been living these projects and processes in many different industries and organizations. Read presenter abstracts and bios here. To see the daily agenda, click here.

Since 2007, this has been one of the premier PM conferences in the region and one of the most highly-rated in the United States. Benefits for Attendees: PDUs for PMP® recertification; opportunities to learn, grow, network and find inspiration. Benefits for Employers: Small investment for employees to gain knowledge, information and skills; gain competitive advantages; engage with project sponsors; enhance reputation; find new resources.

Registration is open. Discounted individual and group prices are offered. If you are a project manager or project management professional living in Texas or nearby states, plan to attend this world class symposium. If you employ project and program management leaders, send them to this world-class event. To see this year's conference agenda and speakers or to register, click here.

The 2022 symposium returns to the world-class facilities in the Naveen Jindal School of Management on The UT Dallas campus in Richardson, Texas, USA. The event will include keynote speakers, professional presentations, interactive sessions, lunches and coffee breaks, and a networking reception. For additional information or with questions contact pmsymposium@utdallas.edu or visit the UTD symposium website here.

The Project Management Program at The UT Dallas provides application-oriented education for professionals with significant project, program or general management responsibilities. Established in the Executive Education Center in UT Dallas' Naveen Jindal School of Management, students can earn a Graduate Certificate in Project Management, a Master of Science degree with an emphasis in project management, or a Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree with project management emphasis. UT Dallas PM program, originally developed in 1997, is accredited by the Project Management Institute (PMI®). For more information, visit project.utdallas.edu.

The award-winning PMI Dallas Chapter is a volunteer-based professional association dedicated to supporting the growth and development of project management practitioners, as well as building awareness of the project management discipline and its critical role in business and organization success. With more than 500,000 members in over 200 countries, the Project Management Institute (PMI®) is the world's largest membership association for project management. Founded in 1984 and with over 4,000 members, the PMI Dallas Chapter is one of the world's largest and most active PMI components. To learn more, visit www.pmidallas.org

The PM World Journal (ISSN: 2330-4480) is a digital publication featuring dozens of articles, papers and stories about projects and project management around the world. The journal is published by PM World, Inc. which also maintains the PM World Library (PMWL), a global resource for continuous learning in program and project management. To read the latest edition, go to www.pmworldjournal.com. To learn more, visit www.pmworldlibrary.net.

