The PMI Madrid Chapter promotes PMI initiative on Academic Development in Project Management

The PMI Madrid Spain Chapter, with the support of PMI Global, wants to promote the development of the project management profession in Spain; and for this it puts means at the disposal of any professional who wishes to be a professional project manager and recognized worldwide. Any professional who wants to start their career in Project Management has many local ways to start with the support of the "Project Management Institute" (PMI), among them our recommendation is:

1. Join PMI as a member
2. Join your local Chapter, in this case the PMI Madrid, PMI Barcelona, PMI Valencia, PMI Andalucía or PMI Galicia Chapter.
3. Obtain a worldwide recognized certification
4. Access to our professional network of contacts

- Share our experiences and stories with other project managers and we want this initiative to be a platform where we can all come together, motivate and be inspired.
- Be the link between young professionals and the career of their dreams since we know that you are the future.
- Do what we can to help the next generation (NEXT GEN).

In short, to spread the word about what it takes to be a Next Generation Project Manager (PM NEXTGEN) and for this we offer seminars, workshops and events in order to highlight to young professionals the passion for project management and thus show you the benefits of being a PM NEXTGEN.

It's an exciting opportunity to meet other young next-generation PMI professionals and give people the opportunity to make their dreams come true.
