

PRESS RELEASE

PMOGA India Hub joins hands with Project Management United as social partners

17 September 2022 – PMOGA India Hub is a non-profit local community Hub of PMO Global Alliance in India. It is driving the agenda of fostering a learning culture, promoting research, and building a strong community of PMOs (Project, Program and Portfolio Management Offices) and PMO/PM professionals to help organizations achieve excellence on strategic and operational aspects.

Project Management United (PMU) is doing the pioneering work in linking all the project management schools to talk. It is back with BRIDGE 2022: PM & PMO Conference (www.pmconference.org) on September 22nd with the most relevant and hot topic of “Sustainable Project Management.” It is the largest international project management conference in the Baltic States; but extending its reach for global cooperation. This conference will be delivered in Hybrid mode (onsite event venue is Radisson Blu, Lietuva and online on Airmeeet platform). It is the most informative conference with eminent speakers and booths of global organizations lined up. PMOGA India Hub and PMU have partnered to support and promote the global PM/PMO community. Book your tickets at the link below:
