What we are looking for

UT Dallas Project Management Program

UT Dallas offers graduate certificate and master's degree programs to help professionals improve their ability to succeed in a global business environment that demands expertise and effectiveness not only in the technical aspects of project, program and portfolio management, but also in leadership and strategic business management.

Our degree programs were among the first accredited by the Project Management Institute (PMI) Global Accreditation Center for Project Management Education Programs (GAC) and are also accredited by AACSB International, the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business.

Students may choose from three levels of recognition:

- Graduate Certificate in Project Management
- MS in Leadership and Organization Development with an Emphasis in Project Management
- MBA with an Emphasis in Project Management

See

<http://project.utdallas.edu> for more information.

Increase your chances of selection by keeping the following in mind.

WE ARE SEEKING PAPERS THAT

- Describe new ideas, concepts, and experiences
- Have not been previously published
- Enhance understanding of project management practices
- Are free of commercial content

Of greatest interest:

- Case studies and lessons learned
- Innovative or new project/program management approaches and techniques
- Improving project management resilience
- Opportunities during disruption
- Disciplined Agile
- Incorporating flexible practices into traditional projects
- Digital transformation of project management processes
- Portfolio management and governance
- PMOs – virtual, transformed, future
- Minimizing complexity, maximizing value
- Post-pandemic (teams, projects, programs and PM)
- PM transformed by big data and AI
- Kanban techniques for project management
- Lean/Agile techniques for physical product development

PMI Dallas Chapter

Founded over 25 years ago, the PMI Dallas Chapter is one of the largest and most innovative all-volunteer chapters in the world. The Chapter has over 4,000 members with over 200 typically attending monthly dinner meetings

A monthly newsletter and website (pmidallas.org) keep members informed of chapter news, upcoming events, job listings, and local training opportunities.

The chapter's values are firmly focused on developing the quality of project management and recognizing it as a valued profession. To that end, the chapter has developed innovative educational programs like PMP Exam Review and PM101 sessions.

The chapter supports local educational organizations that provide project management degree programs through our College Outreach Program.

Corporate Ambassadors (RCCs) serve as single points of contact within major area employers to provide information about the Dallas chapter to assist their coworkers in identifying ways to take advantage of the services the chapter provides.

Making project management indispensable to business results is a major PMI objective. The PMI Dallas Chapter supports this initiative by:

1. Providing project management education
2. Member involvement
3. Corporate involvement

PM World Journal

PM World Journal (PMWJ) is a monthly online practitioner-oriented publication devoted to knowledge sharing and continuous learning in the field of modern program and project management (P/PM).

The PMWJ contains original articles, papers, reports and other works by worldwide authors.

The PMWJ is an educational and informative source of P/PM knowledge and information; it is also a service to those who want to share knowledge, get published or gain visibility.

See the latest edition at www.pmworldjournal.com.

Authors of original works published in the PMWJ can claim PDUs for certification renewal from PMI, or continuing education credits for other PM associations.

All authors and works published in the PMWJ are archived in the PM World Library (PMWL), which now contains over 4,000 works by 1,600 authors.

The PMWL is a globally recognized source for continuous learning in the PM field. Learn more at www.pmworldlibrary.net.
