Project sponsor efficiency and project success

Opportunity to weigh in on key PM issues on research survey

15 January – Madrid, Spain and Dallas, TX, USA – Well known project management leader and PMWJ advisor Alfonso Bucero, PMI Fellow, is inviting project managers, project management professionals and other project practitioners around the world to contribute to research on the impact of project sponsor efficiency on project success.

According to the research introduction:

“The research project aims to investigate the project Sponsor’s efficiency and contribution (if any) to project success in organizations. In this survey, we gather data from Project Managers, Managers, PMO Managers, Project Sponsors, and Executives involved in the management of projects. When answering the questions, please refer to a particular case where you were involved in a recently completed project.”

To voice your opinion and experience, go to the survey at:
<https://s.surveypplanet.com/0b0zuvu6>

It should take you no more than 10 minutes of your time. The deadline is February 10th, 2023. Participants will receive a copy of survey results.

If questions, contact Alfonso at alfonso.bucero@abucero.com

We encourage all readers to consider participating in the research. Ten minutes; go for it!
