Free PM World Library Membership for residents of Nepal

Free access to online global resource related to program and project management for those living and working in Nepal

15 June 2023 – Dallas, TX, USA and Kathmandu, Nepal – PM World has announced that all residents of Nepal can register for FREE ACCESS to the PM World Library (PMWL) at www.peworldlibrary.net. The PMWL is a global resource for continuous learning related to program, project and portfolio management.

According to PM World Library Director David Pells (pictured at right), “We offer free library access to those in many low-income countries, including Nepal. Nepal is growing country in a volatile region, maybe event fragile due to the frequent earthquakes and natural disasters that have struck the country in recent years.”

Those working or living in Nepal can register for FREE BASIC ACCESS to the PMWL at <http://peworldlibrary.net/who-gets-free-basic-access/>. Follow the instructions for residents of low-income countries. If any problems are encountered, contact editor@peworld.net.

“I was given an honorary membership in the Project Management Association of Nepal in 2010,” Pells adds, “so I have tried to follow developments there since then. It’s a small country but strategically located between China (Tibet) and India. It’s also a young, struggling democracy and yet underdeveloped economically. So it needs more projects and project management. Maybe access to the PMWL will help. Nepal is also the location of eight of the world’s tallest mountains, including Mr. Everest, so everyone knows where it is.”

Others offered free access to the PMWL include students, professors and residents of around 80 countries listed as low-income by the World Bank. (See the list of countries for Free Access at <http://peworldlibrary.net/free-basic-access/>.) For most there is a small membership fee, about the cost of a cup of coffee in most countries.

The PM World Library (PMWL) is a global resource for continuous learning in portfolio, program and project management (P/PM). The PMWL is produced and maintained by PM World which (since 2012) also publishes the PM World Journal (PMWJ), a web-based monthly publication featuring dozens of articles, papers and news stories about projects and project management around the world.
