PMI Madrid Chapter Congress at “Ilunion Hotel” in Madrid

Last November 23rd the PMI Madrid Spain Chapter celebrated their XX Congress on Project Management. Close to 200 professionals attended that event that PMI Madrid Chapter celebrates every year. Little by little the “face to face” events re-start again and encourage and motivate PMI members to move forward. This yearly event started with the introduction of volunteers’ groups and recognizing the PMI Madrid Chapter members, sponsors and volunteers for their contribution to the advance of this Chapter. After that, Anabel Dominguez delivered a presentation about the importance of Project Management in the Tourism sector and her practical experience.

After a break for having coffee and networking, six of the past PMI Madrid Chapter Presidents told the audience their practical experiences, anecdotes and advance in the profession when they were Chapter Presidents.

From the right to the left, Jose Antonio Puentes, Alfonso Bucero, Julio Carazo, Francisco. Javier Rodriguez, Claudia Alcelay, Susana Moreno y Jesús Vázquez.

Finally, Antonio Nieto-Rodríguez delivered his presentation about the future trends of project management. Antonio emphasized the need for projects not to focus on deliverables but on value, on delivering benefits.

The event was very interactive with the audience and by the end there was a reception where all attendees had the opportunity to do networking.

TODAY IS A GOOD DAY, and TOMORROW WILL BE BETTER!
