29th January 2024 – Mumbai, India – Access to a new resource has been added to the PM World Library (PMWL) related to Project Management and Business Improvement. The new resource is titled “The Global Project Management Framework©: Enhancing Efficiency in Global Projects”, by Jean Binder and published in the book "Global Project Management: Communication, Collaboration and Management Across Borders" in 2007.

The Global Operations Action Plan© is a vital device based on an alternate organizational concept. It is like an e-book designed to assist international projects. The framework is divided into 5 most important sections overlaying topics together with worldwide teams, networks, and institutions similar to tools and collaborative techniques.

The paper highlights the importance of knowing the demanding situations posed via globalization. This author states that using this framework can assist businesses with a useful resource for making plans, system updates, and in-house education. He also proposes rereading topics inclusive of conversations and expertise in management of global projects.

Finally, the author encourages people to participate in an online survey, in proportion to their experiences, and to participate in discussions to further refine and improve the Global Activities Action Plan©. It is a game for researchers and practitioners to actively contribute to the program.

To access this resource, go to the Applications and Topics section of the library at <https://pmworldlibrary.net/applications-and-topics/>, click on "Business Improvement and Project management" and scroll down to find the resource.
