According to PMWJ Managing Editor David Pells, “The main focus this month was a tribute to the late Prof Davidson Frame, PMI Fellow and founder and academic director at the University of Management and Technology in Virginia, USA. Former PMI director of certification and member of the PMI Board of Directors, Dr. Frame was also author of multiple books on project management and an internationally recognized expert, scholar and educator. The tribute includes memories and statements from Davidson’s family and friends around the world.”

New authors this month include: Anthony Ezemerihe (Nigeria), Rizky Feryansyah (Indonesia), Pedro Justiniao (USA, Puerto Rico), Dr. Ronald Kwena (Rwanda), Linda McManis (USA), Bryan McNeill (USA), Ana Millan (USA), Santosh Nepal (Nepal), Prof Dominic Obodoh (Nigeria), Bhana Priya (USA), Keiani Smith (USA) and Naomi Watkins (USA). New works by 29 authors already included in the library were also added.

“In addition to the tribute, this edition contains a number of outstanding and significant works,” Pells adds. “The interview with Connie Beck, President of AIPM in Australia continues our showcase of professional leaders around the world. Eight featured papers and seven series articles provide significant depth this month. The articles, reports, second editions and book reviews that follow make this one of the most robust editions in recent months. Please read some of these works; hopefully they will make you think or do something differently on your future projects.”
