19th March 2024 – Rawalpindi, Pakistan – Access to a new resource has been added to the PM World Library (PMWL) related to Emotional Intelligence and Project Management. The new resource titled “Mastering Emotional Intelligence in Project Management” is an article by OSP International LLC, a leading online training company for PMP exam preparation, and published in The PM PrepCast.

The article explores the significance of emotional intelligence (EI) in project management, highlighting its critical role in driving success and effective leadership. The integration of EI into various project management knowledge areas including scope, time, cost, quality, human resources, communications, risk, procurement, stakeholder, and integration management, is discussed to demonstrate its relevance in improving team dynamics, negotiation skills, conflict resolution, and stakeholder engagement.

The article also discusses how to enhance emotional intelligence through observational learning, self-awareness exercises, journaling, and expanding one's project management skill set. Overall, it emphasizes the importance of EI in achieving project success and promoting professional development.
