According to PMWJ editor David Pells, “Since authoring his award-winning book on Program Management more than a dozen years ago, Michel has become a leading global authority on program and value management. As a frequent keynote speaker and teacher for PMI’s SeminarsWorld, he is very well known among PMI leaders and PM professionals around the world. I am honored to welcome him to our team of global advisors.

Michel Thiry stated, “David and I discussed this role when we met at the PMI Global Congress in Atlanta last October. It sounded intriguing at the time; the more I learned since then, the more interesting it seems as there are some truly impressive people already involved. I look forward to connecting and participating as opportunities arise.”

PM World engages with professional and academic leaders in various countries to support the organization’s dual missions of advancing knowledge sharing and continuous learning related to modern program and project management.
