NEW TRAINING COURSE
REAL-WORLD PROJECT MANAGEMENT - ELEVATE YOUR PROJECT LEADERSHIP
Starts 19th April 2024

London, UK: Create Cadence have announced their new Real-World Project Management training course led by Adam Lawrence.

Real-World Project Management, the training division of project management consultancy Create Cadence, aims to transform the conventional approach to project management learning.

In today's fast-paced project management landscape, theoretical knowledge often falls short when faced with the real-world challenges that emerge unexpectedly. This dedicated course titled; "Elevate Your Project Leadership" - bridges this gap and offers a carefully curated training experience born from the battle-tested wisdom of seasoned project leaders.

Designed for both new and experienced project managers with the aim to deepen their understanding of effective project management, the 9-week course, consisting of 16 hours of expert led training, begins on Tuesday 16th April at 6pm (GMT).

Devised by a team of in-house experts, boasting over 75 years of collective project delivery expertise, Create Cadence and Real-World Training have developed course modules focusing on practical and actionable strategies to provide participants with invaluable skills to navigate any project scenario with confidence. Presenting the opportunity to learn from experienced allies who are armed with real-world insights and stories to bring techniques to life.

The Expert Coaches:

- Adam Lawrence – course leader and founder of Create Cadence with over 20 years' experience as a project management consultant.
- Dr Camille Koppen – specialising in human-centric transformations, to empower leaders worldwide through high-impact soft skills training.
- Alex McKay – former British Army senior officer bringing expertise in complex environments, strategic planning, operational delivery, and crisis management.
- Stephen Joyce MBA – a member of the Association of Project Management, specialises in project delivery and enhancing organisational capabilities.

For £1,194 (Including VAT), participants will receive over £4.5k of value, including 16 hours of expert-led training, three one-hour group mentoring sessions, exclusive access to the RWPM Slack Channel, and a comprehensive Project Manager's Toolkit.

The weekly sessions include:

16th April	Course introduction
23rd April	You as the project manager
30th April	Project leadership
7th May	Initiating your project
14th May	Managing your project
21st May	Productivity focus
28th May	Project negotiation and challenges
4th June	The end of the project
11th June	Celebration session

"Project management is a critical discipline that drives organisational success across industries, and this course supports our mission to arm project managers, at all stages in their career, with the essential knowledge and practical skills to conquer modern project management complexities." says Adam Lawrence, Founder of Create Cadence, and Coach at Real-World Project Management. "Our course participants will experience interactive modules, real-world case studies, and hands-on exercises, plus develop a robust toolkit to help them plan, execute, and deliver successful projects after the course completion."
